

ROVER ADVISOR

RESPONSIBLE TO:                   GROUP LEADER (For a Rover Crew in a Group)
                                              DISTRICT COMMISSIONER (For a District Rover Crew)

1. BROAD OBJECTIVES

- a. To promote Rover activities at Group/local level.
- b. To strongly encourage progression of Venturer Scouts into the Rover Crew.
- c. To encourage and facilitate the development of each individual Rover in the Crew.

2. FUNCTIONS

- a. Advise and assist the Crew as required in its planning, organisation and conduct of the Crew's activities.
- b. As required, advise Rovers in skills appropriate to the Crew program and the Award Scheme, an/or identify suitably qualified instructors/advisers.
- c. Encourage and advise Rovers in their progress in the Award Scheme.
- d. Ensure a high degree of co-operation with the other Sections especially the Venturer Scout Section and encourage Venturer Scouts to progress to the Rover Crew, and suitable Rovers to Adult Leader roles on completion of their Rover training.
- e. By personal example set a high standard of behaviour.
- f. Attend all Crew meetings, District/Area/Region Rover Councils as required.
- g. Overview and advise the Crew on correct administrative requirements in line with the Scout Association and Branch Policies.
- h. Through the Group/District/Region Rover Council and at other appropriate times or as the need arises keep the Group Leader informed of all matters relevant to the Rover Crew.

3. REQUIREMENTS

- a. Be able to set a high standard of behavior through personal example and encouragement.
- b. Enthusiastic and able to motivate and enthuse others.
- c. Have a strong commitment to rover philosophy and activities.
- d. Not less than 26 years of age.
- e. Be suitable for any additional requirements as set by the Rover Crew.
- f. Be prepared to complete Wood Badge Training.
- g. Be prepared to share leadership and develop other Leaders.

